Dear Robert:

The quilts are up! It is quite impressive to see so many quilt made by one person. Please let you family know about the show, I think they would be pleased with the exhibition.

Also there is a quilt made by the group in honor on Peg. It is a pictorial quilt of a lake. Peg spoke so often about her summer cabin, and how much she enjoyed quilting through out the summer; we wanted to represent her in that way. It is surrounded by friendship star we all signed.

Sunday February 22nd at 4PM there will be a lecture on Quilting in Pennsylvania by Denise Norberg in the Ryon room at the library. We really hope you can attend.
